OFFICE NOTE.

Subject

In re the alleged mismanagement of the inam lands endowed to the Sri Lakshminarayanaswamy temple at Kolar in the Kolar Taluk

LAST REFERENCE.—

Letter No. 2608/252 dated 11th November 1904 from the Dy Commissioner Kolar District.

× Flag B) One Kolar Seshiengar × certain others petitioned this Office complaining that the inam lands endowed to the several Servants of the Sri Lakshminarayanaswamy temple in the village were misappropriated by the Jodidar & that in consequence, Services in the Temple were not being properly performed &c. A report having been called for, the Dy Commr. Flag C) has submitted the records of enquiry in the × Flag H) matter. From the report of Mr K. R. Srinivasa Iyengar, Asst Commr., it is observed that the Jari inams granted for Services, are in the possession & enjoyment of the Service holders who are reported to be properly performing their respective services, & that the lands alleged to have been misappropriated are Sthala inams granted by the Judicature of the Village who have resumed the inams at their pleasure

ABSTRACT

Complain that the Inam lands granted to the various Servants of the Lakshminarayana Temple of the village, have all been appropriated by the godidar to himself and consequently the Servants have thoroughly neglected their duty of the temple;

MGGPB—2000—31-1-02.

that about 60 acres of the Inam lands were submerged in the Yadaroor Tank when the repairs were made;

that when the servants, the ~~Inam~~ holders of those 60 acres, were promised the same extent of lands below the tank in stead; the servants, with a view to escape from their duty of the temple, said they would prefer money at Rs 15/- per acre to lands, in stead; and that in the village of Tirumaganahalli, there is an income of Rs 50/- per annum, and this Amount is not properly spent.

Pray that the said submerged lands may be returned in lands alone and not in cash which the servants prefer, and that the temple may be taken to the management of the Govt
